What do you think that means related to our math class this year?

What do you think this means?

How can this meaning apply to you and in our classroom?

GO GATORS!!!

An NBA basketball player was quoted as saying "You've got to hate to lose more than you love to win."

"GOOD ENOUGH - ISN'T ENOUGH!"

"Stronger Together"

What do these sayings mean & how can we create a saying similar to that about your education & learning?

#STRONGERTOGETHER

The background of the slide is a photograph of several football helmets. One helmet in the foreground is white with a blue face mask and has the word "AIR" printed on the side. Another helmet to its left is white with a blue "R" logo. A third helmet is partially visible on the far left with the word "WARR" on it. The helmets are resting on a green surface, likely artificial turf.

You have to HATE to FAIL....
More than you LOVE to SUCCEED!
